TCEA AUSTIN, TX

A community-driven event in the heart of Texas, bringing together diverse talent from across the state to share knowledge, collaborate, and celebrate the cloud native ecosystem. Backed by the Cloud Native Computing Foundation (CNCF), KCD Texas benefits from the collective experience and best practices of Kubernetes Community Days held around the world.

CORE VALUES

Inclusivity

We proudly bring together the brightest and most innovative minds from across the vast Southwest region of the United States.

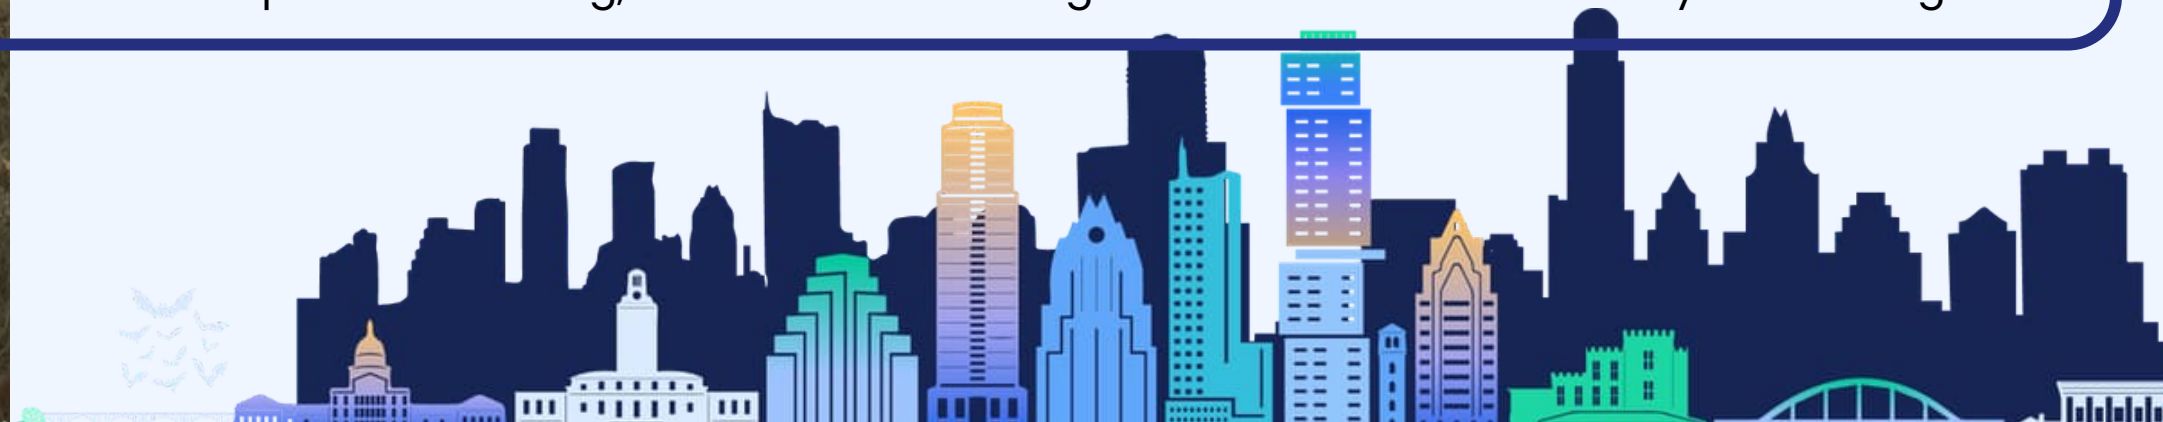

Innovation

By harnessing the knowledge and expertise of individuals from a wide range of backgrounds, we create an environment where diverse experiences and perspectives converge

Collaboration

This diversity fuels our ability to offer groundbreaking insights, foster creative problem-solving, and drive collective growth that resonates far beyond our region.
